

GOTHIC WEEK

October 11-14, 2010

Institute of English and American Studies, University of Pannonia
American Corner, Veszprém

"All that we see or seem is but a dream within a dream."
Edgar Allan Poe

DAY 1 18:00-21:00, October 11, venue: Building A, A01, University of Pannonia

Opening ceremony

- short lectures on the Gothic delivered by Szabó F. Andrea and Katona László lecturers of the University of Pannonia and Jonathan Shadeck (Fulbright Scholar)
- a slide-show exhibition of Jonathan Shadeck's photos (Fulbright Scholar)
- Edgar Allan Poe's Gothic poems – recited by the Turkey Theatre Troupe
- Gothic on stage: DVD-presentation of Samuel Beckett's A Piece of Monologue performed by the Turkey Theatre Troupe

DAY 2 19:00-22:00, October 12, venue: Building A, A02, University of Pannonia

The Female Gothic

- a lecture on the female gothic and its representation on films by Szabó F. Andrea, lecturer of the University of Pannonia
- Gothic movie night I: Alfred Hitchcock's Rebecca

DAY 3 19:00-22:00, October 13, 19:00-22:00, venue: Kisfaludy Conference Room, Eötvös Károly County Library and Cultural Institute

Pre-Halloween Night with live music

- music by the Stink Machine, band of the US Embassy
- please wear something Gothic
- announcement of the results of the Great Gothic Competition

DAY 4 19:00-22:00, October 14, 19:00-22:00, venue: Kisfaludy Conference Room, Eötvös Károly County Library and Cultural Institute

The Male Gothic

- closing ceremony
- a lecture on the male gothic and its representation on films by Katona László, lecturer of the University of Pannonia
- Gothic movie night II: Ridley Scott's Alien